

ALLEGIANT

STRATEGIES GROUP

Ashley Clark as Chief Operations Officer

Allegiant Strategies Group is growing with the addition of Ashley Clark as the Chief Operations Officer.

"I am very excited to announce that Ashley will be joining Allegiant Strategies Group as the Chief Operations Officer. She is an incredibly talented individual and I am confident her knowledge, skills, and creativity will prepare our firm for the future," said David Clark, founder and Managing Partner of Allegiant Strategies Group.

"Ashley has an incredible eye for detail, is extremely organized, forward-thinking, and her collaborative approach to solving challenges is unparalleled. She will be managing all operations of the firm, as well as strategy on other business and investment ventures."

Ashley recently served as the Inspector General for the Florida Public Service Commission and prior to that served as the Deputy Audit Director of Performance and Information Technology for the Florida Department of Transportation. During her tenure, she conducted and led audit teams on engagements relating to transportation, state and federal grants, information technology, and contract performance.

I am very excited to announce that Ashley will be joining Allegiant Strategies Group. She is an incredibly talented individual and I am confident she will prepare our firm for the future.

I am very excited to be apart of the Allegiant team. My initial focus will be to implement scalable processes and solutions that collectively prepare and propel Allegiant to the future.

"I am very excited to be a part of the Allegiant team. My background in the audit and compliance field with a focus on operational process improvement is a perfect transition to the role of Chief Operations Officer. I am confident my expertise in these areas will be beneficial to Allegiant and to those we serve," said Ashley Clark.

"It is really inspiring to have the opportunity to work in a variety of different areas within the firm, contribute to the exchange of ideas, and drive technology-focused solutions. I enjoy bringing ideas forward and being given the freedom and flexibility to pursue those ideas. My purpose is to bring the Allegiant vision to life and encourage a process of continuous growth and advancement. My initial focus will be to implement scalable processes and solutions that collectively prepare and propel Allegiant to the future."

Ashley is a graduate of Liberty University, where she earned her MBA and graduated with high distinction. Ashley also has two undergraduate degrees in Accounting and Business Administration from Flagler College, and is a licensed Florida Realtor.
